

Israelites: ⁴'You have seen what I did to the Egyptians and how I bore you on eagles' wings and brought you to myself. ⁵Now, therefore, if you obey my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my treasured possession out of all the peoples. Indeed, the whole earth is mine, ⁶but you shall be for me a priestly kingdom and a holy nation.' These are the words that you shall speak to the Israelites." ⁷So Moses went, summoned the elders of the people, and set before them all these words that the Lord had commanded him. ⁸The people all answered as one, "Everything that the Lord has spoken we will do." Moses reported the words of the people to the Lord.

Hymn: 258 O thou who camest

Gospel Reading:

Matthew 9:35-10:8

³⁵ Then Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom and curing every disease and every sickness. ³⁶When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. ³⁷Then he said to his disciples, "The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; ³⁸therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest." ¹⁰ Then Jesus summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to cure every disease and every sickness. ²These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon, also known as Peter, and his brother Andrew; James son of Zebedee and his brother John; ³Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James son of Alphaeus and Thaddaeus; ⁴Simon the Cananaean and Judas Iscariot, the one who betrayed him. ⁵These twelve Jesus sent out with the following instructions: "Do not take a road leading to gentiles, and do not enter a Samaritan town, ⁶but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. ⁷As you go, proclaim the good news, 'The kingdom of heaven has come near.' ⁸Cure the sick; raise the dead; cleanse those with a skin disease; cast out demons. You received without payment; give without payment.

Exploring the Bible

The Book of Ezekiel

After the well-received series on Jeremiah in Lent, we thought it would be good to consider Ezekiel. Ezekiel was born before the exile but as a young man was deported to Babylon. He was a visionary, and his prophecies deal both with the reasons for the Exile but also in the conviction that God would renew and recreate his people. Many of his words are important for the New Testament. Most of all, Ezekiel reminds us that God is Sovereign – he is the One who is enthroned over all.

Wednesday morning:

1st July, 8th July, 22nd July

11.00am to 12.30pm, in The Cottage.

We begin with coffee, and in each session there will be teaching and group discussion.

Everyone welcome.
