Hymn: 324 Jesus calls us

Collect: O God, the protector of all who trust in you, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy: increase and multiply upon us your mercy; that with you as our ruler and guide we may so pass through things temporal that we lose not our hold on things eternal; grant this, heavenly Father, for our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading:

Jeremiah 28:5-9

⁵Then the prophet Jeremiah spoke to the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests and all the people who were standing in the house of the Lord,⁶and the prophet Jeremiah said, "Amen! May

Exploring the Bible

The Book of Ezekiel

After the well-received series on Jeremiah in Lent, we thought it would be good to consider Ezekiel. Ezekiel was born before the exile but as a young man was deported to Babylon. He was a visionary, and his prophecies deal both with the reasons for the Exile but also in the conviction that God would renew and recreate his people. Many of his words are important for the New Testament. Most of all, Ezekiel reminds us that God is Sovereign – he is the One who is enthroned over all.

Wednesday morning:

1st July, 8th July, 22nd July

11.00am to 12.30pm, in The Cottage.

We begin with coffee, and in each session there will be teaching and group discussion.

Everyone welcome.
